

UNITED WAY
Connecticut

Child Care

Infant & Toddler Quality Checklist

The Provider	Check here
Provides lots of physical contact such as holding your baby while feeding, rocking baby when tired, and soothing when crying.
Interacts with your baby during feeding and diapering times by making eye contact and talking to baby.
Interacts with baby during play times
Responds to your baby quickly and lovingly to meet your baby's needs.
Uses words of encouragement during playtime
Reads simple and colorful books
Sings to baby
Is patient and gentle when babies are learning to communicate with each other.
Allows for individual napping and feeding routines.
The Environment
A safe and comfortable space with room to lay and/or to move around
Comfortable and soothing areas
Toys that would not be a choking hazard and are washable
Soft and washable toys that are easy for baby to grasp, squeeze, offer a variety of textures and make sounds
Soft music plays in background
Toys and materials reflect cultures and genders
Furniture safe for a child to use to pull up and stand
The Program
Provides routine, familiar caregiver
Responds to individual baby's needs
Provides safe, clean changing and diapering area
Supports professional development
Policies exist and are shared
Parents are informed about their child's day through conversation or notes
Parent's input is valued	