

UNITED WAY
Connecticut

Child Care

School Age Quality Checklist

The Provider	Check here
Supports child if child chooses to work on homework
Includes child in establishing rules
Gives child opportunities to have appropriate responsibilities
Provides guidance and attention
Understands child is developing sense of independence
Uses positive, respectful techniques to help guide behavior
Encourages children to work out conflicts among themselves and steps in as needed to solve conflicts.
The Environment
Ample indoor and outdoor space for various activities
Materials are reflective of children's interests and skills
Toys and materials reflect cultures and genders
Materials clean, available and in good repair
The Program
Staff work together to meet the needs of children
Provide opportunities to promote family involvement
Diversity in culture, language, and community that children live in Written policies that support communication
Hire staff qualified to work with school aged children
Supports a flexible schedule
Parents are informed about their child's day through conversation or notes
Parent's input is valued	